11 Petitioner,
12 vs.
13 CATHERINE CORTEZ MASTO, et al.,
14 Respondents.

Case No. 2:13-cv-1334-GMN-GWF
ORDER

15
16 This action is a petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 by a 17 Nevada state prisoner represented by counsel. Before the court are two motions: First, respondents'
18 motion to dismiss certain grounds of the first amended petition for lack of exhaustion (ECF No. 33)
19 and second, petitioner's motion to dismiss certain unexhausted grounds of the first amended petition 20 based on his formal abandonment of those grounds (ECF No. 34).

21 I. Procedural History

22 Petitioner was convicted, pursuant to a jury trial, of the following: Count 1, attempted 23 murder with the use of a deadly weapon; Count 2, extortion; Count 3, discharging a firearm out of a 24 motor vehicle; and Count 4, discharging a firearm at or into a structure. (Exhibit 2).¹ Petitioner was 25 sentenced to the following: Count 1, 48-120 months incarceration plus an equal and consecutive

1 term for use of a deadly weapon; Count 2, 24-60 months to run concurrent with Count 1; Count 3, 2 24-60 months to run concurrent with Counts 1 and 2; and Count 4, 24-60 months, to run concurrent
3 with Counts 1, 2, and 3. (Id.). The judgment of conviction was filed June 19, 2007. (Id.).
4 Petitioner pursued a direct appeal. On May 20, 2008, the Nevada Supreme Court filed an order
5 affirming petitioner's convictions. (Exhibit 5).

6 Petitioner filed a pro se post-conviction habeas petition in the state district court on June 17, 7 2008. (Exhibit 6). On September 24, 2008, the state district court filed an order denying the 8 petition. (Exhibit 8). Petitioner appealed the denial of his petition, and the case was docketed by 9 the Nevada Supreme Court as Case No. 52551.

10 Petitioner filed a second pro se post-conviction habeas petition in the state district court on 11 October 8, 2008. (Exhibit 9). Petitioner filed a first amended petition on December 1, 2008.
12 (Exhibit 11). At a February 11, 2009 hearing on the petitions, the court orally denied the petitions.
13 (Exhibit 75). Petitioner appealed the denial of his petitions, which was docketed as by the Nevada 14 Supreme Court as Case No. 53297. The state district court filed an order on March 4, 2009, denying 15 petitioner's December 1, 2008 habeas petition. (Exhibit 13). On February 3, 2010, the Nevada 16 Supreme Court filed an order consolidating Case Nos. 52551 and 53297, and reversing the denial of 17 petitioner's post-conviction habeas petitions. (Exhibit 14). The Nevada Supreme Court remanded 18 the matter to the state district court with instruction to appointment counsel to assist petitioner in his 19 post-conviction proceedings. (Id.).

20 On February 6, 2010, the state district court appointed attorney Terrence Jackson to 21 represent petitioner in his post-conviction habeas proceedings. (Exhibit 81). On April 26, 2010, 22 Mr. Jackson withdrew as counsel due to a conflict of interest. (Exhibit 83). At a status check
23 hearing on May 3, 2010, attorney Lisa Rasmussen was appointed as post-conviction counsel and a 24 briefing schedule was set. (Exhibit 84). The state district court's order appointing counsel was filed 25 on May 18, 2010. (Exhibit 20). On May 5, 2011, petitioner filed a motion to discharge counsel, 26 arguing that she failed to file a supplemental or amended post-conviction petition for over one year.
27 (Exhibit 21). The hearing on petitioner's motion was twice continued because attorney Rasmussen
28 was not present. (Exhibits 91, 92). At the second hearing, the state district court granted

1 petitioner's motion to discharge counsel and ordered Rasmussen to send petitioner a copy of the file.
 2 (Exhibit 92). On June 20, 2011, petitioner filed his third post-conviction habeas petition in the state
 3 district court. (Exhibit 22).

4 On August 31, 2011, the state district court appointed attorney Michael Schwarz to represent 5 petitioner in his state post-conviction habeas proceedings. (Exhibit 95). On February 13, 2012,
 6 attorney Schwarz filed supplemental points and authorities in support of the post-conviction
 7 petition. (Exhibit 24). An evidentiary hearing was held on June 8, 2012. (Exhibit 99). At the end
 8 of the hearing, the state district court orally denied the post-conviction habeas petition. (Id.). The 9 state district court filed an order denying the petition on August 9, 2012. (Exhibit 100). Petitioner 10 appealed the denial of his post-conviction habeas petition. On May 15, 2013, the Nevada Supreme 11 Court filed an order affirming the denial of the post-judgment habeas petition. (Exhibit 31).
 12 Remittitur issued on June 12, 2013. (Exhibit 106).

13 Petitioner dispatched his pro se federal habeas petition on July 16, 2013. (ECF No. 6). On 14 December 11, 2013, respondents filed a motion to dismiss the petition. (ECF No. 11). By order 15 filed March 3, 2014, the Court denied respondents' motion to dismiss without prejudice. (ECF No.
 16 23). Also in the order of March 3, 2014, the Court appointed the Federal Public Defender to 17 represent petitioner in this federal habeas proceeding. (Id.). On April 2, 2014, Assistant Federal 18 Public Defender Ryan Norwood filed a notice of appearance representing petitioner. (ECF No. 24).
 19 Through counsel, petitioner filed the first amended petition on June 12, 2014. (ECF No. 26). On 20 July 9, 2014, respondents filed a motion to dismiss certain grounds of the first amended petition for 21 lack of exhaustion. (ECF No. 33). On July 14, 2014, petitioner filed a motion to dismiss certain 22 unexhausted grounds of the first amended petition based on his formal abandonment of those 23 grounds. (ECF No. 34). No opposition was filed to either motion.

24 II. Discussion

25 In the motion to dismiss, respondents argue that Ground 4(b) (except the portion identified 26 as Ground 4(b)(7), at p. 26 of the first amended petition, lines 1-3), Ground 4(c), Ground 4(d), 27 Ground 4(e), and Ground 5 were not exhausted in state court. (ECF No. 33, at pp. 11-13).
 28 Respondents do not contest the exhaustion of Grounds 1, 2, 3, 4(a), or 4(b)(7). (Id., at p. 11). In

1 response to the motion to dismiss, petitioner filed his own motion to dismiss the unexhausted claims
 2 identified in the motion to dismiss. Pursuant to Rose v. Lundy, 455 U.S. 509, 522 (1982), a petition
 3 must be completely exhausted before a federal court can consider its claims on the merits. If some 4 claims in the petition are unexhausted, “the petitioner can always amend the petition to delete the 5 unexhausted claims, rather than return to state court to exhaust all of his claims.” Id. at 520.
 6 Alternatively, the petitioner can seek a stay of federal proceedings while he returns to state court to 7 exhaust all of his claims. See Rhines v. Weber, 544 U.S. 269 (2005).

8 In the instant case, petitioner’s counsel explains that he has met with his client and explained
 9 the options, and potential risks of each option. (ECF No. 34, at p. 2). Petitioner moves to delete the 10 claims that the State contends are not exhausted, including Ground 4(b) (except the portion 11 identified as Ground 4(b)(7), at p. 26 of the first amended petition, lines 1-3), Ground 4(c), Ground 12 4(d), Ground 4(e), and Ground 5. Petitioner states that he formally abandons the deleted claims.
 13 Petitioner abandons the unexhausted claims with the understanding that the remaining claims will 14 be answered by the respondents. The Court grants petitioner’s motion to dismiss the unexhausted 15 claims with prejudice and to direct the State to answer the remaining claims. See Rose v. Lundy, 16 455 U.S. at 522.

17 III. Conclusion

18 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that petitioner’s motion to dismiss unexhausted grounds 19 of the first amended petition (ECF No. 34) is GRANTED. The following unexhausted grounds of 20 the first amended petition have been formally abandoned by petitioner and are DISMISSED WITH 21 PREJUDICE: Ground 4(b) (except the portion identified as Ground 4(b)(7), at p. 26 of the first 22 amended petition, lines 1-3), Ground 4(c), Ground 4(d), Ground 4(e), and Ground 5.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents’ motion to dismiss (ECF No. 33) is 24 DENIED AS MOOT.

25 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents SHALL FILE AND SERVE AN 26 ANSWER to the remaining grounds of the first amended petition within forty-five (45) days from 27 the entry of this order. The answer shall include substantive arguments on the merits of each
 28 remaining ground of the first amended petition. Each remaining ground of the first amended

1 petition shall be discussed individually, and the State's answer shall not contain general
2 argument that is unconnected with a specific ground for relief. No further motions to dismiss 3 will be entertained.

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner SHALL FILE AND SERVE A REPLY to 5 the answer, within forty-five (45) days after being served with the answer.

6 IT FURTHER IS ORDERED that any further exhibits filed by the parties shall be filed
7 with a separate index of exhibits identifying the exhibits by number or letter. The CM/ECF 8 attachments that are filed further shall be identified by the number or numbers (or letter or letters) of 9 the exhibits in the attachment. The hard copy of any additional exhibits shall be forwarded – for 10 this case – to the staff attorneys in Reno, Nevada.

11 DATED this 5th day of November, 2014.
